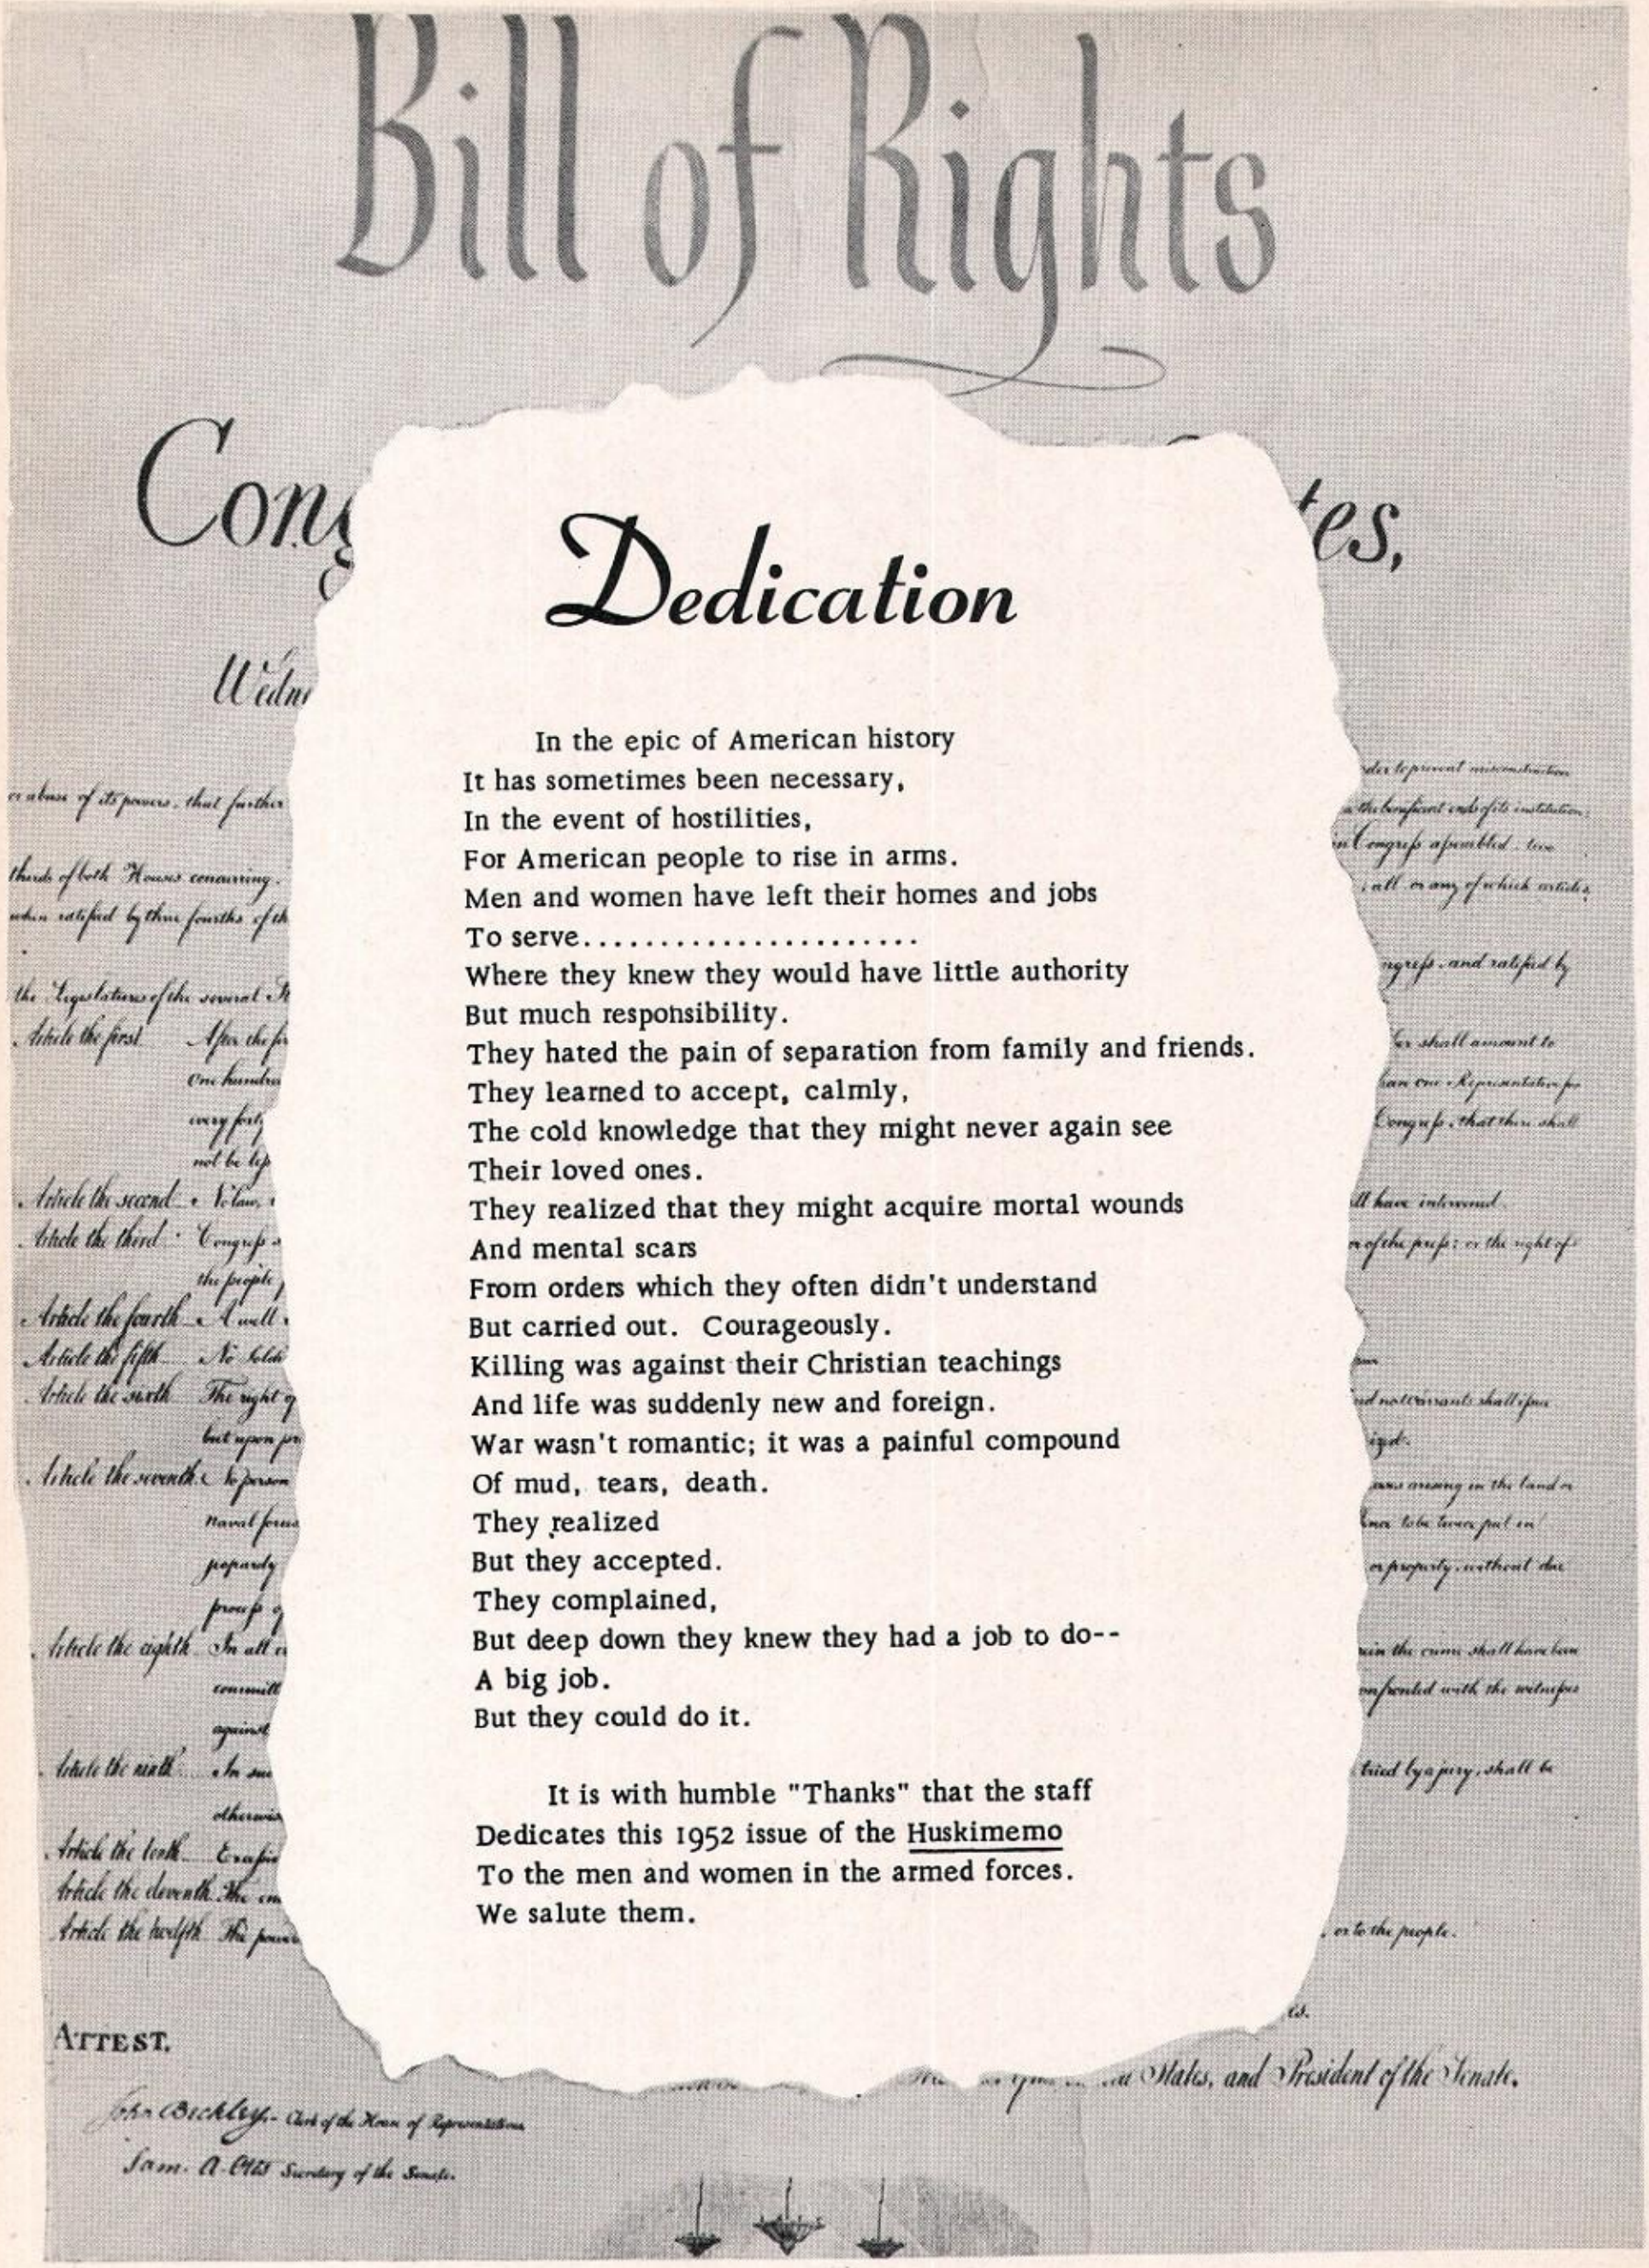
Foreword

—But there's a tree, of many, one,
A single field which I have looked upon,
Both of them speak of something that is gone;—
William Wordsworth



Dedication

In the epic of American history
It has sometimes been necessary,
In the event of hostilities,
For American people to rise in arms.
Men and women have left their homes and jobs
To serve.....
Where they knew they would have little authority
But much responsibility.
They hated the pain of separation from family and friends.
They learned to accept, calmly,
The cold knowledge that they might never again see
Their loved ones.
They realized that they might acquire mortal wounds
And mental scars
From orders which they often didn't understand
But carried out. Courageously.
Killing was against their Christian teachings
And life was suddenly new and foreign.
War wasn't romantic; it was a painful compound
Of mud, tears, death.
They realized
But they accepted.
They complained,
But deep down they knew they had a job to do--
A big job.
But they could do it.

It is with humble "Thanks" that the staff
Dedicates this 1952 issue of the Huskimemo
To the men and women in the armed forces.
We salute them.

They fall successive, and successive rise."

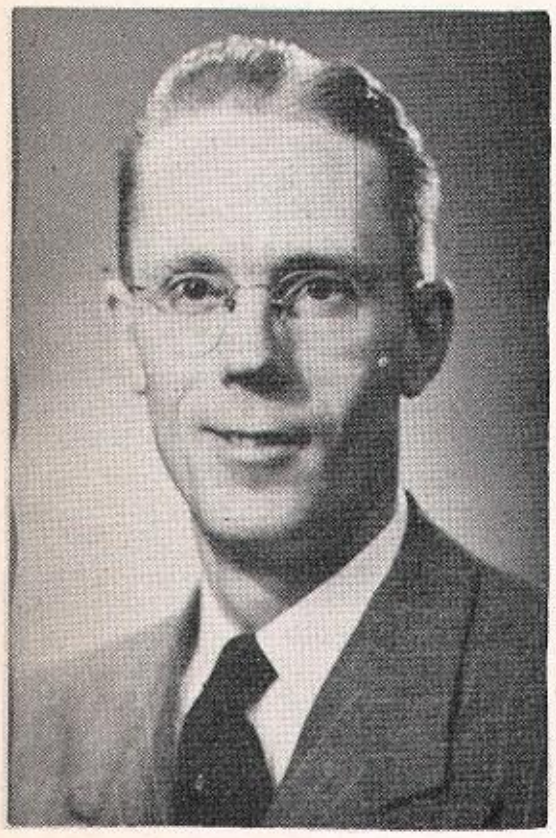
MR. NELS SWANSON

B.A., University of Washington; Eastern Washington College of Education; Washington State College.

SUPERINTENDENT'S MESSAGE

Generally our school is known through the action and conduct of the students and faculty. The students and faculty have an intrinsic share in molding the reputation of the school. Personally, I am proud of the splendid work and conduct that has been displayed by the students and faculty throughout the year. With this spirit of work, conduct, and co-operation it has been possible to improve your own stature in the school and in the community. I would like to express my best wishes and say "Thank you" for your good work.



MR. DONALD W. OLSON

B.A., Jamestown, North Dakota; Graduate work, University of Washington.

PRINCIPAL'S MESSAGE

Every newspaper, the magazines, and the radio tell us we are living in crisis times. We stand at the crossroads, destruction on the one hand, life on the other. It is our choice.

Never before has there been such a desperate need for men and women with moral responsibility and the courage to live full and useful lives.

It is our hope that the young people of this school will develop such responsibility and courage, that they will face the problem without hesitation and will do their utmost to build upon a solid foundation developed during their high school days.

Senior Class Will

We the Senior Class of nineteen hundred and fifty two being mentally unbalanced, physically handicapped, and feeling that we should leave something to the faculty and student body do hereby make and publish our last will and testament.

Firstly, to the student body, we will leave our "hog slopin'" clothes, our battered and torn books, and the not so sane faculty.
Secondly, to Mr. Carle, we leave a fixed title, "Square Deal."
Thirdly, to Mr. Olsen, we leave the knowledge of how to run and control a rowdy class and also a hundred tardy and absent slips to prove how good our attendance was.
Fourthly, to the Juniors, we leave the school knowing it's on its way to the dogs.
Fifthly, to the Sophomores, we leave the knowledge that they will be upperclassmen next year.
Sixthly, to the "Frosh" class, we leave all our meanness, ability to get straight A's and a penny, hoping they will soon become millionairs.
Seventhly, to be cherished by the receivers and cared for as their own, the individual seniors do bequeath the following:

I Dick Bagley will my smooth typing ability to (peck, peck) Bernard.
I Vonne Allen will my love for the Brooklyn Dodgers to any Yankee fan.
We Earl and Louis Carbaugh will our loud ways to Don and Arnold Christian.
I Geraldine Boyd will my ability to chew gum to anyone who can make as much noise.
I Orville Clevenger leave to answer the call of the wild.
I Edith Brewster will fourth period library to anyone who can stand it.
I Gary Coleman will my beard to Bob Lockhart.
We Lila Coston and Claudette Muir will our ability to gripe to Dianne Vipond and Mary Lou Lacy.
To the next year letterman I Gary Danley leave Harry Potter number two.
To Arlene Sjoblom, I Marleen Cramer will my ability to out talk anyone.
I Douglass Darby will my colorful nicknames to Allen Clevenger.
I Velma Gillispie will my ambition to anyone who has as many varied jobs as I have.
To all the girls in Morton High School, I George Engle, will my love.
As I do not care to Leave John to any High School girl, I Dorothy Goodwin will take himwith me.
I Thomas Eyle will my politeness to Eddy Wilson.
I Frances Hamilton will my dreams of a Cadillac to anyone who will make the down payment for me.
I Wayne Harting will my rowboat to Dwayne Loden so he can take his girl "a-courtin'."
To Beverly Coty, I Juanita Hanger will my height because she'll need some kind of protection.
I Wayne Hofmann will Morton High School to Jack DeLong because it isn't big enough for me and him.
I Dorothy Knittle will my love for Cyril to anyone who thinks she can get it.
To Richard Sjoblom, I Don Howlett will my quaint, peaceful laugh.
I Gayle Lloyd will locker number 12 to Shirley Riffe.
I Ralph Looney will to Larry Scott my little ears.
I Lila McHenry will my ability to disrupt a class to anyone who can do a good job.
I Jack Norris will my five years in Morton High School to the next of my wit.
I Margaret Messling will leave the school in peace as I take my French horn with me.

Class History

Chapter I

OUR HEARTS WERE YOUNG AND GAY

Entering Morton High in the fall of '49 we were 73 very green freshmen properly awed and impressed by the nonchalance of the upperclassmen. We had that "well, here-we-are-at-last" felling, but after the first frightening week, gone forever were all thoughts of grade school days.

We were duly initiated on Thursday, September 30, by the sophomores, but they made up for the unpleasantness by honoring us with a dance. We returned the honor the following week.

Our able class advisors were Miss Noonan and Mr. Lore. Officers elected were Gary Coleman, President; John Vipond, Vice-President; Lorna McLeod, Secretary; Ramona Tappan, Treasurer; Claudette Muir, Sergeant-at-Arms; and June Mills, Student Council Representative.

We entered into the many activities of high school readily, joining clubs, teams, and yell staff, giving dances and altogether having an exciting year.

Chapter II

GROWING UP

We officially launched our activity-packed year with the freshmen initiation which was traditional with a capital T! We sophomores were well represented in sports, dances, and other activities and organizations.

The Class of '52 numbered now 53. We lost no time electing our year's officers: Gary Coleman, President; Ken McCurdy, Vice-President; June Mills, Secretary; and Lorna McLeod, Treasurer; John Vipond, Student Council Representative; and Gary Danley, Sergeart-at-Arms.

With the help of our ever-patient advisors, Miss Allen and Mr. Roberts, the sophomores had a very exciting year. We greatly anticipated being called "Upperclassmen."

CLASS

In seventy-two I wondered....Back to my alma mater;....A frowning toad hopped up the steps....And said, "You're getting fatter!"

I asked him of my class-mate friends,....Whom I've not seen for years;....The poor old toad, he looked at me,....And then burst into tears!

He told me of the Stiltner girl,....The treetops she keeps trim;..And Gerry Boyd, she's in a whirl-- ....She's teaching fish to swim!

Beeny Howlett's selling brushes;....Ralph Looney's at the races; The Hofmann boy is painting masks-- ....(He always could make faces!)

Jack Norris is a chimney-sweep,....And Lila C.'s a lady-cop;....The paratroops have claimed Marleen,....And Franny owns the "Hock-n-Shop."

Vonne and Patti dance with bubbles;....George manufactures pins....Orville makes blue poker chips,...."Perk" breeds imported hens.

McHenry is a mousetrap-maker;....Lloyd manufactures cheese-- ....Sue Stamper stamps the laundry;....And Tappan sails the seas.

Esther raises fishworms,....And Knittle ties the flies;....L. Carbaugh is a doll-doctor....And Earl is baking pies!

Coleman crochets hankie-hems;....Danley's knitting booties;....June is training tadpoles-- ....And John draws shapely cuties!

E. Tiller dives the deep seas,....He daily battles sharks;....Claudette M.'s a barmaid,....And Bagley's pet cat barks!

Riffe is milking oysters,....And Velma cans the soup;....Harting shaves with razor clams,....And Edith sails a sloop!

Dorothy G. digs goeyducks,...And feeds them to her parrot;....Tom E.'s left-handed wrenches....Have "class," they're 14 carat!

Juanita sacks the peanuts....At the Yankees' yearly game;....Pat Rich, the team's new waterboy,....Joined baseball's Hall of Fame.

Kelly teaches Drivers' Training,....He "shows them how it's done"; Margaret M. is also teaching....The rivers -- how to run!

Darby is the author....Of "Why Waste Your Time On Sleep?"....And Barbara T. is out on bail....For flying with her jeep!

Lest we forget the building....Let me tell you how it looked: ...The mimeograph was all that stood....From what the lab class cooked!

I thought I'd heard the last and worst,....But, with a final sob, The toad concluded, with a tear,....That Byron's got a job!

HIGH SOCIETY

Enrollment of the Class of '53 had taken a plunge this year, down to just forty-one students.

The juniors were onstage in March, when the plot and cast of "The Nit Wits" kept the audience in gales throughout its fast pace Main Character of "The Nit Wits" was an amatuer psychiatrist, and the plot was strictly comedy. Post-performance fun included a trip to Tacoma and the Ice-Hockey game.

"Blue Moon" was the unusual theme chosen by the junior committee for the gala Senior Ball. The hall was appropriately decorated with soft blue lights and romantic silhouettes.

The new upperclassmen look forward, now, to their last and senior year in dearly beloved Broadbent High.

This year's junior class advisors, Miss Truvedson and Mr. Beller, proved apt and efficient. The class officers were elected early in the school year:

President . . . . . Eldon Bristol
Vice-President . . . . . .Dwayne Loden
Secretary . . . . . Dianne Vipond
Sergeant-at-arms . . . . . .Dick Goodwin
Student Council Rep. . . . . .Lloyd Harris

Sophomore Class

SOPH-ISTICATES

Forty-two students returned to their second year at Morton High, feeling like full-fledged Broadbentites and wise in the ways of the school world. Next year they would be true upperclassmen--but this year they were out of the froshie stage.....and wasn't that enough?

They were the planners and perpetrators of the annual freshmen initiation, and throughout the school term entered into many activities.

Early in September they elected their class officers:
President.....Lee Moore
Vice-President.....Billy Hilton
Secretary-Treasurer....Joy Ashton
Student Council Rep. .Darline Allen
Sgt.-at-Arms....Douglas Bickford

The patient advisors, Miss Athan and Mr. Foubert, kept pandemonium at a minimum during the class meetings.

Freshmen

The whispering went over the wires, "September 21....it's to be held on September 21...."

With a perceptible shudder the new freshman glanced nervously around this ancient stack of bricks that was to be another home for two and two more years, wondering if it was worth this hideous initiation planned for him....

It was! Fifty-four freshmen survived and now laugh about that day. The sophomore - sponsored dance, honoring the new freshmen, told them that they truly belonged, In return, they gave a dance for the sophomores.

THE "YOUNG-UNS"

Activities were numerous, and the class of '55 didn't hesitate to participate in them. The competent class advisors, Mrs. Long and Mr. Urwiler, were aided by the officers elected:

President.....Eddie Wilson
Vice President.....Wanda Mills
Secretary-Treasurer... Charles Goe
Student Council Rep... Dave Moore

Thus another group of future grads began their high-school career.

Annual Staff

In years to come, when memories and friends have faded, in some attic or dusty corner you may accidently stumble on a discarded album. Within the bindings of this book you may find many fond memories of high school days, of old friends, and of youth in its most enlightened and ambitious stage. We have tried this year to put forth a memory book which in years to come will grow to be treasured more and more for it contains reminders of the joys of our youth.

The preparation of the HUSKIMEMO was under the guidance and supervision of Mrs. Long. The Editor was Patricia Sanders; the Assistant Editor, Dianne Vipond; and the Business Manager, Maureen Perkins.

There were two themes featured throughout the book: Trees for a serious element, and Teen-agers to represent the spirit and activities of the students. Those drawing illustrations were Thelma Sloan, Patricia Sanders, and Maureen Perkins.

The HUSKIMEMO staff of 1952 want to thank Mr. Urwiler for the fine photographs that he made.

Paper Staff

This year the advanced typing class published the monthly school paper, HUSKY FLASHES. Several improvements were made, such as the omission of gossip, which was replaced by Personals turned in by various members of the class and the addition of a Boy and Girl of the Month column. Honored ones were chosen for activities, school spirit, personality, scholastic ability and neatness of appearance.

Editor and Assistant Editor for the first semester were Maureen Perkins and June Mills. The second semester June Mills was Editor, with Thelma Sloan as Assistant.

Art work was done by Thelma Sloan and Pat Sanders.

Special effort was made to cut good stencils and to develop writing ability by each member completing assignments such as feature stories, editorials, and personals. Assignments were frequently rotated to give the members varied experiences.

Sixth period was scheduled for paper work; however, free periods and after school time was frequently used. It is the general feeling among the class that our success in publishing the HUSKY FLASHES was due to the guidance of our advisor, Mrs. Long.

Band

Oh the drums go bang,
And the cymbals clang,
And the horns they blaze away.
Darline blows the old tuba,
And how the clarinets do play.....

Down the halls of fame go the strains made by our band. There were eighteen members, under the direction of Mr. Fransham, Director of Music at Morton High School.

The band partiicpated in all games, wearing their green uniforms decorated with white.

On November 21, 1951, the Morton Band attended the Mass Band Concert at Winlock, and on April 8, 1952, they took part in the Mass Band Concert at Randle. The schools that attended were Onalaska, Randle, Mossyrock, Toledo, Pe Ell, Winlock and Morton.

Senior Play

"Lights Out"

"Lights Out--" and the curtain rose, spotlighting a highly seasoned comedy-mystery.

The plot pivoted gaily around the efforts of a supposed ghost to prevent Agnes Harwood--flighty and fortyish--from selling the pretentious but penniless estate she had inhreited from her late uncle, Albert Stilwell. Prospective buyers were the kaledioscope of guests at her house party. One guest was uninvited by Agnes Harwood but welcomed by her daughter, Doris--this was detective--story--writer Neil Parker. Mrs. Harwood deplored Neil's occupation, and was trying valiantly, if hoplessly, to prevent him from becoming her son-in-law.

A series of frightening events put the guests on a mental merry-go-round, and the eerily echoing voice of the late Albert Stilwell brought forth the ensuing decline and subsequent fall of all composure. In the thrilling game of "Murder," one of the guests disappeared in the darkness; later, she was found to have been an impersonator! This, the mystery thickened.

An erratic, weak-hearted real-estate operator provoked merriment with his rhyming--if unpoetical--slogans; a career--ambitious maid and her determined suitor added to the fun. The great variety of characters in the cast made this a spicy as well as thrilling performance.

The director was Mr. Foubert. April 17 was the date set.

Claudette Muir, Dianne Vipond, Mary Lou Lacey

If you happened to attend one of the Morton High School games and noticed on the sidelines a whirl of green and white, it was undoubtedly our yell-leading trio, Claudette, Dianne, and Mary Lou.

The yell, "We're with you team," was certainly proven correct in their case, because whether our team was winning or losing, the yell leaders were right there inspiring the rooters and the team with spirit and enthusiasm.

Football

The Morton Huskies had a very good season in 1951, sharing the championship with Mossyrock. These two teams battled to a 7-7 deadlock tie. The Huskies had several close calls but managed to win with their hard charging line and fine running back. Morton lost only one game, a post season game to Federal Way. The Huskies played hard all season and made the other teams look up to them. Coach Loete was very proud of his championship team.

The Huskies just missed by one game going to the tournament this year. They had a .727 average as they won 8 out of 11 games. They finished fourth in league play. Baseball

Despite losing a large share of their 1950 hitting power, the 1951 Huskies nine turned in a very successful season. Early-season practice games saw the Huskies emerge victorious in two contests with Centralia High as well as in dumping highly-favored Centralia Junior College.

In regular league play the diamond squad finished a strong season.

As the annual goes to the printer, 1952 baseball prospects appear promising. A large number of lettermen, giving the Huskies experience in hitting, fielding, and catching, provides the nucleus around which Coach Loete hopes to build a championship crew.

Chapter III

UPPER CLASSMEN AT LAST

The Class of '52 numbered 52 at their entrance this year, but during the school term gained more. We found our third year a busy one. The junior girls sold candy, popcorn, soda pop, and hot dogs at the games. During the year the juniors presented a play, "Hillbilly Courtship," as another means to raise money for this project. The theme for our senior ball, "Harbor Lights," was beautifully carried out in harbor scenes in blue with black silhouettes.

Class advisors in our junior year were Miss truvedson and Mr. Beller. In the election of officers the following won out: President, Gary Danley; Vice-President, Orville Clevenger; Treasurer, Don Howlett, Secretary, Lila McHenry; Student Council Representative, Gary Coleman; Sergeant-at-Arms, Byron Amburgy.

Chapter IV

OUR GOAL REACHED

As mighty seniors our goal is reached, after four very successful years at Broadbent High. Officers elected were Donald Howlett, President; Sue Stamper, Vice-President; Edith Brewster, Secretary; Pat Sanders, Student Council Representative; and Earl Carbough, Sergeant-at-Arms. John Vipond was elected Student Council President. Again our class was well represented in school activities.

We can now relax briefly and watch the other students still climbing the ladder of high school learning. We number 40.

(C L A S S W I L L, Concluded)

I Kenneth Riffe will my rowdiness to Lloyd Harris.
To anyone who is healthy and able, I June Mills will my Saturday nights.
I Kenneth Stanley will my driving ability to Don Gillispie, since he's got a licence.
I Maureen Perkins will the mimeographing machine to anyone who has the strength to throw it out the window.
I Eugene Tiller will my place in Mr. Carle's English class to whoever wants it.
I Patricia Sanders will the little bottle of aspirin in my locker to anyone on next year's paper staff.
To Jim Coston, I John Vipond will my receding hair line.
I Esther Short will the good breaks in my "Chev" to Thelma Sloan.
I Sue Stamper will my quietness to Morton High School -- it certainly needs it.
I Joanne Stiltner will my love for Randle, which was willed to me last year, to Sharon Mahon.
I Ramona Tappan will take my love for a certain sailor with me.
I Barbara Thornsberry will my fighting temper to Mae Bonar.
I Pat Rich will leave.

The foregoing instrument was, by the said class of nineteen hundred and fifty-two, signed, sealed, published, and declared by us to be its last will and testament. We have hereunto subscribed our names as witnesses thereto.

Mr. Earle,

Your one of the best teacher that I have, there is only one thing I don't like English, I hope to see you down at the tennis Court so that I can maybe if I'm lucky beat on game.

One of the 4th period class students in your next year.

Helma Sloan.
